Background
Once a guardsman in the City of Brass, Slym accepted an assignment that brough him to Black Iron and decided to stay where he could do more good making order from the disorder between Insiders and Outsiders. Slym has a reputation for fairness and impartiality and is often called upon to help get to the root of Red Market disputes.
Notes
Slym dresses like a do-right 40's detective both in covert and manifest form. In covert form, he is a pale man with a shaved head and very smooth skin. In Manifest form he is a firey salamander with scales in an orange, yellow and red pattern.

Covert Power		Action	Mod	Impact	Manifest Power		Action	Mod	Impact
Burning Brand		Complex		/	Foreboding Omen		Simple
Target:	Any creature or object within your reach.				Target:	One creature you can currently see.
Effect:					Effect:
The target is magically seared with a Burning Brand. While the target is branded you can always tell how far away it is from you. Only magical beings can see the brand, but the target can feel warmth from the brand whenever your attention is focused on it. The brand lasts for one year and a day, or until removed through magical rituals.					Designate a skill, symbol, or specific action that you foresee the target performing within the next day. Then roll two dice and record the lower of the two. The next time that the targets attempts a roll involving your designated skill or action it uses your recorded result. The target cannot receive Expertise dice for this roll.
